

Exclusive Member Benefits:

Entrepreneurial Assistance: The Chamber has established valued partnerships with several resources to provide FREE professional assistance to our members. SCORE Bucks County offers you access to free professional guidance, information, and templates to assist you in starting or growing your existing business. SCORE mentors are on call to help you succeed. Call 215.943.8850 to make an appointment.

Another valued partnership is with the Lehigh University Small Business Development Center. A representative is available upon request to provide free business consulting and counseling to anyone interested in starting a new business or expanding a current one. For more information, call 610.758.3980.

Realize the benefit of membership through the Chamber's valued relationships with the Bucks County Economic Development Corporation, Industrial Development Authority, Redevelopment Authority, Bucks County Conference & Visitors Bureau, area Main Street Programs, our local School Districts, Legislators and Government Officials, and many more. The Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce is your connection!

Networking: With more than 500 members and partners, the Upper Bucks Chamber is a prime source for making new contacts. By attending Chamber functions, committee meetings, or special events, you have an opportunity to network with some of the area's most successful professionals. UBCC offers monthly Meet & Greets, an excellent opportunity to meet other members and grow your brand.

Legislative Voice: The Chamber is your voice and your source for legislative representation. We meet monthly with federal, state, and local legislators to promote and protect your interests. Just keep us informed of your issues and concerns, and we will make sure you are heard. Make it a point to attend our three legislative breakfasts featuring federal, state, and local officials with an annual update.

Discounted Constant Contact Subscription: Constant Contact is the leading provider of small business online marketing tools to help you stay in touch with customers to sell more, grow your customer base, and increase your bottom line. Get up to a 25% discount on all Constant Contact subscriptions as a UBCC member.

Website Advertising & Promotion: UBCC.org makes available a variety of opportunities to get your message out there. Currently, we list all chamber members on our site free of charge and include a print listing in our annual focused directory. We also provide a link to your website at no cost to you. We have listing upgrades available to all members that allow you to upload coupons, maps, and embedded videos. Each member has their login and password for the member's only section. You can update your profile, register for events, add your events to our calendar, and pay open invoices. Opportunities also exist on sponsoring chamber events, web advertising/banner advertising, advertising in special publications--such as the membership directory, or advertise in the weekly update.

Annual Events: Each year, the Upper Bucks Chamber hosts special events designed with you in mind. You can choose to participate in as many or as few as you like. Help plan them or just enjoy attending. We offer an Annual Golf Classic, Clay Shoot, and the Foodie. This popular restaurant festival supports Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week (PFEW), an intensive summer program that educates high school students about the American free enterprise system. UBCC also hosts an annual Transportation Forum, Employer Forum and more events added each year.

Visitor Information: The Chamber is also home to the Upper Bucks Visitor Center. Each year, more than 3000 visitors to the area pass through the Chamber's doors. Information is on hand at the chamber office for local and regional points of interest and business referrals – available with a dose of knowledgeable and friendly customer service from the UBCC staff.

Group Health Insurance: The Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce is proud to offer our members access to the My Benefit Advisor (MBA) program and its unique approach to employee benefits. The MBA program guides employers through the complexity of planning, communicating, and managing employee benefits. An expert Advisory Team provides year-round support and guidance for every aspect of your benefits program.

Intelligent Energy Management Solutions: As a member of the Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce, you have the power of Constellation, an Exelon Company and national leader in the retail energy industry. See more at <http://energy.constellation.com/ubcc>.

Free Conference Room: Members have the exclusive privilege to utilize the Chamber's second-floor conference space for client meetings or workshops (capacity: 40) with the first hour for free. Additional hours, half-day/full-day use at discounted rates. Must be used during regular office hours.

Free Mailing Lists: Available upon request as a text file or Excel spreadsheet. Labels for an additional charge.

Free and Unlimited Certificates of Origin: An excellent benefit for our manufacturers exporting goods.

Involvement & Participation: You won't benefit unless you put these two words into action! When you join the Chamber, you become eligible to serve on the Chamber's committees. This allows you to have your voice heard directly and to help steer the direction in which the Chamber moves. In addition to the inherent reward of contributing to a civic-minded organization, Chamber committee members say this is the best way to network, promote business and make new friends.

The Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce provides the resources and relationships needed to assist in growth and profitability and is one of the smartest investments you can make. Expand your visibility within the region and find local business opportunities. The Chamber is the first point of contact for visitors, residents, and new businesses that choose to locate here and provides our members a direct route to building relationships within the Upper Bucks community. Our goal is to keep Upper Bucks working hard, growing strong and economically prosperous.
