Yes I would like to contribute to this year's themed baskets – "YEAR OF BEER" – "A WINE A MONTH" and a GIFT CARD BASKET. We are seeking donations such as wine, beer, and gift certificates, We have developed some fun ways to raise additional funds at the event and as a contributor your business will be listed as a donor on ubcc.org/foodie. For more information, contact: Tracy Kline at tkline@ubcc.org or call 215.536.3211.

Yes, I will need electric. EXHIBITORS MUST PROVIDE OWN EXTENSION CORDS.

What is it? The 14th annual premiere culinary event in the Upper Bucks region highlighted by select local restaurants, breweries, wineries, bakers and caterers showcasing their favorite dishes and libations to approximately 400 attendees. Partial proceeds benefit UBCC Foundation Leadership Education Programs and Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week (PFEW), an intensive program that educates high school students about the American free enterprise system.

What we provide? One 6' ft. draped table, signage and electricity, if needed. The Foodie provides high visibility of your business among influential people and companies in our community by marketing the event through posters, flyers, email blasts, billboards, and newspapers as well as the evening of the event. A complete list of details and directions will be provided to you upon registering.

What you need to do? Return this completed registration form to the Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce by as soon as possible - or you'll miss out on the promotional opportunities associated with the event. Provide a sampling of a few of your own unique specialties for 400 attendees. Promote your business by bringing business cards, brochures and menus with you to the event. If you have any questions, please contact the Chamber Office.
